Pascal P. Niedermann
Founding Partner

Pascal Niedermann has a 20-year international expertise in the Financial Services, Investment and Strategic Policy Making industry and has specialized in developing and implementing effective solutions for companies in need for strategic positioning and capital funding in order to grow in international markets.

As the Founding Partner of The Maestro Group, Pascal implements effective investment banking and business development solutions for companies in need for strategic positioning and capital funding. He restructures companies to bring them public on one of the biggest Stock Exchange in the world, the German Stock Exchange (Deutsche Boerse). In cooperation with the U.S. Government, Pascal also specializes in opening new sales channels for companies in international markets. The Maestro Group hosts also industry and private equity events for CEOs and founders, with more than 3,500 attendees from 10 countries over the past 4 years.

Before co-founding The Maestro Group in 2005, Pascal had joined the international trade team of the U.S. Senate Finance Committee as a European policy advisor for Senator Max Baucus from Montana, the Chairman of the Senate Finance Committee. Pascal served also as staff representative for the Senator on President George W. Bush's Export Council in Washington D.C.. He was the first European to serve in such a position.

Prior to joining the Senate Finance Committee, Pascal worked for 13 years for UBS Financial Services in Zurich and New York. He specialized in marketing and business development in the high net worth division of UBS Wealth Management in Europe, North and Latin America for the world's biggest asset manager. Pascal has coached hundreds of senior private bankers on 3 continents in new client acquisitions and sales. Pascal serves a member of the board of directors of various American and European companies and has been featured several times in Switzerland's leading media (newspaper, radio, and television). Pascal is a Congressional Fellow of Brookings Institution and appears on a regular basis on one of Switzerland's leading radio station as an analyst on U.S. political and economic affairs

Timothy J. Lesko
Founding Partner

Tim Lesko has had a 25-year distinguished career in international business development and management consulting in a variety of industries and businesses.

Tim founded his 1st business at age 21 with Sierra Systems, Ltd., a California Licensed security company handling state wide industrial & government accounts. He later sold his interest and founded Triforium Labs, a product development company which successfully manufactured FDA & ADA approved medical products for hospitals and clinics. He has conducted business in over 19 countries and 26 of the 50 states here in the USA. For over 30 consecutive years he has been involved in starting companies, growing them, financing them and recently taking them public. His advice and guidance has focused major industries into new and emerging markets saving millions. He's worked with famous parties from Martin Sheen to William Shatner to Jennifer Flavin Stallone or countless others over these many years. He has launched products at legendary trade shows such as CES, COMDEX, MAGIC and many others, and has personally negotiated with buyers at Disney Co., Sharper Image, Body Glove and many others. He has filmed and presented products in nationwide TV infomercials. As the founder and creator of PoGO™ an integrated electronic briefcase mobile office, Tim raised $3.5m from investors, secured exclusive patent licenses, oversaw design and creation of prototypes and orchestrated global media rollout.

Tim is currently involved in private placements, grant funding and charitable enterprises while maintaining equity interests in ongoing product development projects. Tim has also acted as exclusive agent for various equity transactions, notably in the New York Yankees Limited Partnership, as well as an attempted purchase of the Eagles NFL Team via the Crittenden and Langley Group, largest private naval orange growers in Florida. Tim's products have received wide International acclaim and numerous magazine "covers". Tim also serves as a member of the board of directors of various public and private companies.
